

RESEARCH COLLOQUIUM

SUMMER 2019

ALUMNI TALK

WHAT TO DO AFTER GRADUATION?
WHAT ARE YOUR CAREER POSSIBILITIES?

JOIN US FOR A DISCUSSION WITH KARIN HESS

JULY 02, 2019

17.45 UHR, PHIL 0.012

Karin Hess is a historian and a specialist in the field of migration and integration policy. Since 2013 she has been a Deputy Head of the Division for Migration, Integration and Citizenship at the Schleswig-Holstein Ministry of the Interior, Rural Areas and Integration. The division is responsible for receiving refugees and central issues relating to integration, participation and naturalization. Prior to her current position she was a research associate and curator at the Deutsches Auswandererhaus, a migration museum, in Bremerhaven. Karin studied North American History, Modern History and Musicology at the Universities of Cologne, the Thompson Rivers University, B.C./Canada and the Universidad de Sevilla/Spain (M.A. 2006)..

University of Cologne

Institute for North American History